

Thursday, May 25, 2017

“Strategies for improving injury outcomes for older adults: How novel Medicare payment structures can help”

Presented by

Brendan Carr, MD, MS

LDI Adjunct Senior Fellow, Associate Professor, Associate Dean, Healthcare Delivery Innovation, Thomas Jefferson University

Time: 12pm – 1pm

Location: Howard Hall 224

Sponsored by:

Center for Research on Aging
Program on Aging, Trauma and Emergency Care (PATEC)

Co-Sponsors:

Center for Biology and Behavior Across the Life Span
Geriatrics and Gerontology Education and Research Program (GGEAR)
Geriatrics Research Education and Clinical Center (GRECC)
The Doctoral Program in Gerontology
University of Maryland Claude D. Pepper Older Americans Independence Center (Pepper Center)
The Peter Lamy Center for Drug Policy and Aging