FAST FACT: Alcohol, heroin, and marijuana are the top 3 most commonly cited substances of abuse by Marylanders admitted to substance use treatment programs.

Although treatment admissions involving alcohol or cocaine/crack as the primary substance of abuse declined between 2008 and 2013, admissions for heroin, prescription opioids, marijuana/hashish, and benzodiazepines increased.

For more information visit the SEOW website: http://www.pharmacy.umaryland.edu/programs/seow